

Kristina D. Onaolapo, Founder and President

Evangelist Kristina Onaolapo is a native of Milwaukee, WI. She is the youngest of two children born to Gloria and Daniel Davis. She is a born again believer in the Lord Jesus Christ. One who has been saved, baptized, and filled with the Holy Ghost. Kristina was saved at the age of 12 and set aside for God's purpose. At the age of 20 She acknowledged her calling to the ministry. At age 22 Kristina preached her trial sermon and was licensed by the Union Hill Missionary Baptist Church to preach the gospel of Jesus Christ. Kristina Onaolapo has served as an Associate Minister at the Union Hill Baptist Church under the leadership of Pastor William Walker for 17 years. She earned her Bachelors of Arts degree in Theology from Grace Christin College and Theological Seminary and currently works for Milwaukee Rescue Mission as their North Campus Community Engagement Coordinator; where she shares the love of Jesus Christ by helping to provide basic needs to the community. She also assists individuals who are transitioning out of the homeless shelter and at-risk youth transition into adulthood.

Kristina Onaolapo is the Founder and President of God's Love Family Outreach International Corp., a non-profit organization to help individuals discover God's purpose for their lives. It is an organization that helps: communities, youth, individuals transitioning out of prison, foster care, and homeless shelters; with basic needs, Biblical Life Skill Training, and Opportunities for the Future.

Kristina has a great passion for the hurting and underserved. Her belief in holistic ministry and living out God's word in every area of life is evident in her daily life.

Kristina enjoys spending time with her family. She is a loving wife and mother of 2 daughters. When asked to describe herself, she has simply stated "I just love the Lord God and seek to please Him."
